

PLEASE do not put the telemarketers rights before ours. Since we, the consumers pay our individual phone bills, our rights and wishes should come BEFORE any other party. I do not maintain a telephone so that I can be harrassed at the will of someone trying to earn a buck. How about if they simply leave us THEIR home number so that we can get back to them at a time that is convenient to us???